

SOLUTION ENGINEER

Remote. Fulltime. m/f/d

DIVERSIFIED, CHALLENGING, NEVER BORING!

SOLUTION HERO – From the beginning to the end of the sales process. You assist in technical elements of RFPs. You create customized product demonstrations to articulate use cases and value to prospects. And finally you will manage customer proof-of-concepts, ensuring customer goals are being reached with the purpose to inspire them as customers for our product.

TRAINER – You create training materials and provide remote and onsite trainings to our customers. You help to build a Data Virtuality community by documenting and sharing your knowledge with our customers as well as train your colleagues.

ENTERPRISE EXPERT - You lead the implementation of our software for enterprise customers. Your professional, clear and confident communication lets you communicate with enterprise customers on an equal level.

DEEP DIVER – You learn DataVirtuality's product features, benefits and applications at a deep level and stay up-to-date on product releases. And you are going one step further: By sharing product feedback you will contribute to our product development and make it better every day.
